IMPRISONMENT

As to Count 5 of the indictment, it is adjudged that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 70 months. I recommend that the defendant receive: substance abuse treatment, including RDAP; vocational and educational programming; and that the defendant be afforded prerelease placement in a residential reentry center with work release privileges. I also recommend that defendant be housed in an institution close to his family in Chicago, Illinois, subject to his security and programming requirements.

The defendant is in primary federal custody. He has pending charges in Waukesha County, Wisconsin, Circuit Court Case Nos. 18CF419 and 18CF1006. According to the United States Supreme Court's ruling in Setser v. United States, 132 S.Ct. 1463 (2012), I have the discretion to impose a sentence that will run concurrently with or consecutive to any other sentence. (USSG § 5G1.3, Background Commentary). The conduct charged in the pending cases is unrelated to the conduct involved in the federal offense. I have no objection to having the federal sentence run concurrent to any sentence defendant receives in his pending state cases, but I leave that decision to the state court judges.

The U.S. Probation Office is to notify local law enforcement agencies, and the state attorney general, of defendant's release to the community.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

The term of imprisonment is to be followed by a three-year term of supervised release as required by statute.

In light of the nature of the offense and the defendant's personal history, I adopt condition numbers 1 through 10 and 12 through 14 as proposed and justified in the presentence report. Neither party has raised any objections to the proposals.

If, when the defendant is released from confinement to begin his term of supervised release, either the defendant or the supervising probation officer believes that any of the conditions imposed today are no longer appropriate, either one may petition the Court for review.

Defendant is to abide by the statutory mandatory conditions.

Statutory Mandatory Conditions

Defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

Defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

Defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

13) Participate in substance abuse treatment. If defendant is eligible for funding from any source to cover the cost of treatment, defendant is to make reasonable efforts to obtain such funding. Participation in treatment does not require payment by defendant unless it is clear defendant can afford it. The probation office may utilize the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts' phased collection process.

5	$100.00	$0.00	$0.00
Total	$100.00	$0.00	$0.00

It is adjudged that the defendant is to pay a $100.00 criminal assessment penalty to the Clerk of Court for the Western District of Wisconsin immediately following sentencing.

The defendant does not have the means to pay a fine under § 5E1.2(c) without impairing his ability to support himself upon release from custody so I will impose no fine.

SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS

Payments shall be applied in the following order:

- (1) assessment;
- (2) restitution;
- (3) fine principal;
- (4) cost of prosecution;
- (5) interest;
- (6) penalties.

The total fine and other monetary penalties shall be due in full immediately unless otherwise stated elsewhere.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise in the special instructions above, if the judgment imposes a period of imprisonment, payment of monetary penalties shall be due during the period of imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the clerk of court, unless otherwise directed by the court, the probation officer, or the United States Attorney.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.

In the event of a civil settlement between victim and defendant, defendant must provide evidence of such payments or settlement to the Court, U.S. Probation office, and U.S. Attorney's office so that defendant's account can be credited.
